Think and Sort

Each word has -ed or -ing added to a base word. Each base word ends with a vowel and a consonant. The consonant is doubled in one-syllable words. It is often not doubled in longer words.

stun + ed = stunned

order + ed = ordered

Write each Basic Word under the heading that shows what happens to the base word when -ed or -ing is added.

Word Analysis/Phonics

21–25. Write the five Basic Words that contain the /ü/ sound.

3 Spelling and Writing

Proofread a Letter

Spelling and Compound Sentences Use proofreading marks to correct ten misspelled Basic or Review Words and two mistakes in commas in compound sentences in this part of a letter.

Example: Raoul is ^{suffering} ~~suffuring~~ from chicken pox, but he helped too!

Dear Sonya,

Guess what? We remodeled our family room! In the begining, the project was easy. While Mom and I were gathering paint samples, Dad orderred the new flooring. Back home, we skanned our list and saw we'd forgotten a few things. Mom and I returned to the store and Dad totald the costs.

Then we got to work. We stippd the wallpaper and skrubed the glue off the walls. Listening to music made it fun. Dad ripped out the old carpetting and then we began laying the new floor. Soon we saw that the boards weren't straight. Our hopes of finishing quickly dimd, but then our neighbor offered to help. You'll be stunned at how great the room looks now!
